

Aitrach-Rundweg

HIKING TOUR

This tour leads through a landscape with no particular sights, but it is very varied and always surprises with a wonderful mountain panorama.

Starting point distance:

11.5 kilometres

 maximum altitude:
613 meters

 altitude difference:
76 ascending

Location

Rathaus Grabenstätt

 duration:
02:54 hours

 minimum altitude:
524 meters

 altitude difference:
61 descending

Between the autobahn and Osterbuchberg, a large number of former wetlands spread out after the extensive Bergener Moos, which were converted into fodder meadows by draining, as indicated by the many water-bearing ditches that accompany us on this hike. The Aitrach is a lively brook that meanders through forests and meadows from Bernhaupten before it flows into the Rothgraben and from there flows into the Chiemsee.

