

Bike and Hike-Tour via Chiemhauser-Alm to Taubensee

TOUR

Bike hike tour - start at the Achberg car park. Via the forest path to the Chiemhauser Alm past the Haider Alm and the Donauer Alm. From the Chiemhauser Alm on foot to the Taubensee.

Starting point

Achberg hiking car park

 distance:
9.9 kilometres

 maximum altitude:
1220 meters

 altitude difference:
604 ascending

Location

Schleching

 duration:
03:00 hours

 minimum altitude: 699 meters

 altitude difference:
596 descending

From the Achberg hiking car park, you can enjoy cycling up through the mountain forest past the Chiemhauser Alm, where you can enjoy the view towards Geigelstein. You can park your mountain bike at the entrance to the Kroatensteig or next to the Chiemhauser Alm. Now you hike over the Kroatensteig to the Taubensee, which you reach after about an hour. The beautiful mountain lake is also called the eye of the Chiemgau and is one of the highest lakes in Germany. Back at the Chiemhauser Alm you can spoil yourself with typical alpine delicacies before you cycle back to the starting point. The facts about the tour at a glance Length: 7 kilometers bike and 2.5 kilometers hike | Total duration: approx. 3 hours | Difficulty: Starting point: Achberg hiking car park Refreshment stop: Chiemhauser Alm. Tip for cooling off: take your bathing suit and hop into the Taubensee

