Way: From Inzell we start on the main road in the direction of Bad Reichenhall. Immediately after the Max Aicher Arena turn right towards Ruhpolding. After passing the golf course, we came to an intersection and kept to the left. The B 305 now leads us to the biathlon center and on to the Löden-Mittersee and Weitsee to Reit im Winkl. Here we follow the signs to Marquartstein and reach the highest point of the tour, the Maserer Pass. From there it goes downhill via Unterwössen, Marquartstein and Staudach to Bergen. A slight incline awaits us on the last part of the tour to Siegsdorf and from there along the B 306 back to Inzell. Special features: This varied tour offers everything that our wonderful landscape has to offer. Beautiful villages, idyllic lakes and a breathtaking mountain panorama. Refreshments: Ruhpolding, Reit im Winkl, Unterwössen, Marquartstein or Bergen. There are numerous places to stop for refreshments in every town along this route. Tip: Extend your tour from Reit im Winkl via Kössen and from there along the Klobenstein Gorge to Unterwössen.
