

Über die Chiemhauseralm zur Streichenkirche

HIKING TOUR

Easy hike over the Chiemhauseralm to the Streichenkirche, which lies high above the valley of the Tiroler Ache.

Starting point

Taubensee parking lot-Hinterwössen

Location

Unterwössen

 distance:
9.4 kilometres

 duration:
03:45 hours

 maximum altitude:
1074 meters

 minimum altitude:
577 meters

 altitude difference:
434 ascending

 altitude difference:
539 descending

Taubensee car park Hinterwössen - Wegmannalm - Häusleralm - Chiemhauseralm - Streichenkirche - Streichenkirche car park - Schleching From the Hinterwössen hiking car park, the comfortable path no. 92 leads past the Wegmannalm, which has a great view, to the Rexmoos crossroads. Here you turn left and pass the Häusleralm over beautiful alpine pastures to the Chiemhauseralm. Past this stop, walk a few meters downhill, where you meet the path coming up from Schleching, Achberg and the Streichenkirche. This path leads past the Donaueralm and before you reach the Haideralm, turn left towards Streichen. Via the alpine pasture area of the Ulmenaualm you will soon reach the Streichenkirche St. Servatius with its famous Gothic altar. From the Streichenkirche, hiking path no. 15 leads down, past the Streichen car park into the Schleching valley. From here you can take the bus back to Unter-/Oberwössen. Next to the old Streichen pilgrimage church is the equally old Mesnerhof, an inn with a beer garden and a magnificent view over the Achental and the Geigelstein. Refreshments: Chiemhauseralm, Berggasthof Streichen (currently closed) Tip: The pilgrimage church of St. Servatius on the Streichen is one of the most important art monuments in the Bavarian Achental.

